

Scott Fields

Show Host/Analyst/Color Commentary/Play by Play

Scott Fields developed his vast knowledge of sports through his wealth of experience as a successful college and professional basketball coach. Scott has coached many current and former NBA players. Scott has won multiple championships and Coach of the Year awards around the globe as a head coach in FIBA competitions.

Scott prides himself on educating viewers by utilizing his experience as a teacher of the game. Scott has the uncanny ability to connect with the viewers with his energy, enthusiasm and passion for the game. Scott has a personality that is second to none. Scott is a great story teller and has the ability to inspire through those journeys. Scott educates with his analysis and attention to detail. Scott is a trusted resource for all things sports. Scott has earned his title of “Coach” and has the charisma and personality to raise viewership. Scott can break down strategies and discusses the How’s and Why’s things are happening during the broadcast.

Scott has the “Natural” tag placed on him as he transitions from the sidelines to broadcaster.

Scott and his wife Kim resides in Salt Lake City, Utah.